The History

OF EWTN MEDIA MISSIONARIES

EWTN launched 24 - hour programming in # 1987

Enthusiastic Catholics began to conduct signature campaigns in their cities and persuade local cable companies to add EWTN full-time to their channel line-ups.

These volunteer campaigns spread like wildfire and soon it became evident to Mother Angelica that the was moving literally thousands of interested supporters to help the Network reach more souls.

Now the Media Missionary program continues to raise awareness of EWTN through TV, radio, online, mobile, and in print. At a time when the Network reaches more souls worldwide than ever before, we are grateful to be

14,000 STRONG

Just as in the early days of the founding of EWTN, we rely on passionate volunteers to be our hands and feet at local parishes and in local communities. The goal of a Media Missionary is to make Christ known and our means of evangelization is EWTN—the global Catholic network that is truly “everywhere.”

It is our aim that every EWTN Media Missionary cultivate a Missionary Mindset. A mindset that is gripped with the urgent question: “How swiftly can I share what I have received from EWTN?”

You can expect to receive tips, downloads and advice from our Media Missionary Department. You can change your involvement at any time. We like to say there are three ways to be involved, through Personal Prayer, Parish Involvement, or Public Outreach. Read more about each at ewtnmissionaries.com just scroll down the page and click on the icons.

We encourage you to invite others to become Media Missionaries in your parish or community too.

PRAYER & WORK

Prayer is essential to the work of evangelization, so we've developed a spiritual resource for our Media Missionaries! Pray with our Devotional Guide—compiled by the Franciscan Missionaries of the Eternal Word.

Resources, Resources, Resources!

Explore OUR RESOURCES

There are a host of other materials available to support you in your work! Check them out here and choose from downloadable items, materials you can order, or those you can share electronically right away! Be sure to take a look at the specialty RESOURCE GUIDE document, it lists many of the resources and their descriptions in one place. Think about the ways in which you can use the free resources and click here to place additional orders for your parish, community or beyond, when you are ready.

SHARE MATERIALS AND INFORMATION

about EWTN with your parish's RCIA class, religious education class, or in a verbal announcement at the conclusion of Mass (ask your EWTN Regional Manager for further details). Consider blogging about EWTN or place an ad for EWTN on your website. Simply promote EWTN in the areas of parish, community, and social life in which you are already active! Plus, don't forget to follow us on social media.

BE CREATIVE

Share about EWTN anytime, anywhere! If you choose to share at your parish, show your resources/materials to the responsible person and get approval to share, then order more materials as needed.

Many leave a small stack of Seasonal Highlights in the church vestibule, or at their parish gift shop. Some choose to share with parish groups such as prayer groups, Directors of Education, Knights of Columbus, Catechists, Eucharistic Ministers serving the homebound, or others.

You are not limited to sharing at your parish, you can share anywhere you have permission to do so, like a hospital, nursing home, or local bookstore. You could even share while standing in line at the grocery store. Some missionaries even post the posters we send them in their home's front window!

Get Connected

WE'LL BE COMMUNICATING with you through our bi-weekly emails, monthly videos, and our website. If you have questions, ideas or need any assistance, please contact us! We are happy to help! There are EWTN Regional Marketing Managers located throughout the country to offer ongoing support to you in your work. Find the manager for your area. They can also let you know if there is a volunteer coordinator for EWTN in your diocese or archdiocese and put you in touch with that person!
